

Don Scheibe is a lifelong resident of Asotin County. He was raised at Anatone, where he graduated from high school. He attended WSU for a time after graduation, and then went into the Army during the Korean Conflict. He was discharged from the Army in 1955. Soon after returning from the army he met Helen Thompson, and they were married later that year. He then attended Lewis Clark State College, and then taught for 3 years, before returning to Potlatch Corp. He worked for Potlatch Corp. for a total of 36 years, retiring in February of 1991. He was elected to the Clarkston School Board in 1975, where he served continuously until 1998. He served on the board at Potlatch Federal Credit Union for over 30 years, and on the Twin County United Way board for about 20 years. After retiring from Potlatch Corp. he was elected Asotin County Commissioner in 1992, and has served there since then. He has served on various boards connected to the commission during this time. He was appointed to the County Road Administration Board in 1997 and currently serves as vice-chair of that organization. He has resided in Asotin County just south of the city limits of Clarkston for the last 40+ years. He has 4 grown children and 9 grandchildren.
